

Corama, Inc.

Privacy Notice

Effective Date: 09/23/2026

Corama, Inc. (“Corama”) understands the importance of your privacy. This Privacy Notice applies when you visit any websites owned and operated by Corama, including our website at corama.ai (the “Website”), use our artificial intelligence software and the Contract Radar Maximizer platform, communicate with us, or use any and all of our products and services (collectively, our “Services”). Our Privacy Notice describes our collection of information during your interactions with our Services, and the rights and choices you have regarding your information.

By using our Services, you acknowledge you have read our Privacy Notice, and agree to our Terms of Use.

I. Information Collection

When operating our Services, Corama collects information, including Personal Data about you. The types of information we collect depends on your level of engagement and how you interact with the Services. “Personal Data” means information that can reasonably be linked to a particular individual.

Sources of Information Collection. We collect information from a variety of sources, including directly from you and your interactions with our Services. We may also obtain information about you from other sources, including through third-party services and publicly available government procurement databases such as SAM.gov.

The information we collect includes:

Identifiers and other Personal Information. We collect identifiers when you interact with our Services or otherwise voluntarily provide them to us. This includes:

- First and last name
- Email address
- Username and password (passwords are stored only in hashed form by our authentication provider)
- Company name, job title, business address, and business phone number
- Business identifiers such as UEI, CAGE code, and NAICS codes
- Certifications, team size, and other business profile details you choose to provide Information About Others. If you add team members or partners to a proposal, or contact another user through the CORAMA Directory, we collect the names, roles, email addresses, and phone numbers you enter about those individuals. You must have their permission to share that information with us.

Communications Information. We collect information within messages we exchange when you communicate with us. This includes:

- Information in support requests
- Questions and feedback
- Survey responses
- Other information you provide

Technical and Usage Information. Like most websites, our servers automatically record certain technical information when you use our Services, and our authentication and security providers record similar information when you sign up, log in, or reset your password. This information includes:

- IP address
- Browser type and version
- Device and operating system information
- Date, time, and pages or features you access
- Log-in and password-reset events
- Actions you take in the Services, such as searches you run and documents you generate

We do not use web beacons, advertising cookies, or third-party analytics or advertising networks, and we do not track your activity on other websites. See Section IV (Use of Cookies) for details on the cookies we use.

Documents and Business Information You Upload. When you use our artificial intelligence software, we collect the documents and information you upload or enter, such as capability statements, company descriptions, past performance information, solicitation documents, and proposal drafts, together with the prompts and messages you send to our AI assistant.

Other Information You Submit. We collect any other information you submit to us through our Services through using our artificial intelligence software, by contacting us, or through other means.

Payment Information. Corama currently provides the Services at no cost and does not collect debit or credit card information, billing addresses, or other financial information from you.

II. Use of Information

Corama uses information and Personal Data for a variety of purposes, as described below. We use the information we obtain about you to:

- Manage Our Organization and Provide Our Services. Corama uses information and Personal Data to maintain user accounts, provide Services, facilitate usage of the Services, and complete necessary tasks to manage our business and provide our Services.
- Match You With Opportunities. Corama uses information and Personal Data, including the documents you upload, to identify and rank government contracting opportunities and to generate capability statements and proposal drafts for you.
- Conduct Research and Improve Our Services. Corama uses information and Personal Data to conduct research, such as questionnaires and surveys, and to analyze and enhance our marketing communication strategies and our Services as a whole.
- Communicate. Corama uses information and Personal Data to communicate important information, including delivering notices to you about the use of our Services.
- Protect Our Organization. Corama uses information and Personal Data to protect against fraud, unauthorized access, and other liabilities, and to secure our Services by identifying potential hackers and unauthorized users.
- Ensure Security and Efficiency and to Comply with the Law. We may use information and Personal Data for other purposes with your consent or where permitted by law, for example to comply with applicable legal requirements, court orders, legal proceedings, document requests, industry standards, and our internal policies.

III. Disclosure of Personal Data

We may disclose your information in the following circumstances to the below referenced parties. We disclose information and Personal Data:

- When You Consent. Corama will not disclose your information and Personal Data to others without your consent, except as specified in this Privacy Notice.
- To Our Service Providers and Vendors. We transfer all or a portion of your information and Personal Data to service providers who process it on our behalf to deliver the Services. These currently include: Render (cloud hosting, located in the United States); Google Firebase (user authentication, database, and file storage); Google reCAPTCHA (bot and abuse protection on our sign-up, log-in, and password-reset pages); OpenAI (processing of your documents and prompts through its business API to generate contract matches, capability statements, and proposal drafts; under OpenAI's API terms, this data is not used to train OpenAI's models); Qdrant (search index used to match your profile with opportunities); and our email delivery provider (verification codes, password resets, and notifications). These service providers are required by contract or law to only use or disclose the information as necessary to perform services on our behalf or as otherwise required by law.
- To Other Users. If you choose to publish a profile in the CORAMA Directory, the business information you include in that profile will be visible to other users and visitors of the Services, who may contact you through the Services. If another user adds you to a proposal team or sends you an inquiry, we will share the message and that user's name and contact details with you, and yours with them.

- Public Government Data. Opportunity and awardee information shown in the Services is obtained from public government sources such as SAM.gov. We do not send your Personal Data to those agencies.
- In the Event of a Merger, Acquisition, Change in Ownership, or Reorganization. Information and Personal Data we have collected may be disclosed to a third party in the event of a merger, transfer of ownership or assets, bankruptcy, or other corporate reorganization.
- No Sale or Sharing for Advertising. Corama does not sell your Personal Data and does not share it with third parties for cross-context behavioral or targeted advertising, and has not done so in the preceding 12 months.
- When Legally Permitted or Required to Do So. Corama may disclose without your prior consent any information or Personal Data about you or your use of our Services, if we believe disclosure is necessary or required by law, or for our legitimate interests. Corama may disclose without your prior consent any information about you or your use of our Website, if we believe disclosure is necessary, including to:
 - o Protect and defend the rights, property, or safety of Corama, employees, other users of the Website, or the public;
 - o Enforce the Terms of Use and Privacy Notice;
 - o Respond to a legally valid request from a competent governmental authority;
 - o Respond to claims that any content violates the rights of third parties;
 - o Correspond with law enforcement agencies, if we are required to do so; and
 - o Satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or governmental request.

IV. Use of Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that a website stores in your browser. Corama uses only the following cookies and similar technologies:

- Session cookie (strictly necessary). When you log in, we set a cryptographically signed, HTTP-only session cookie that keeps you signed in and protects your Account. It is deleted when you log out or when you close your browser, and it is not used for advertising or tracking.

- Google reCAPTCHA (security). Our sign-up, log-in, and password-reset pages load Google reCAPTCHA to distinguish people from automated bots. Google may set cookies and collect hardware and software information (such as device and application data) for this purpose, subject to the Google Privacy Policy (<https://policies.google.com/privacy>).
- Browser storage. Our application stores your interface preferences (such as language and sidebar layout) in your browser's local storage. This data stays on your device and is not sent to us.

We do not use advertising cookies, third-party analytics cookies, or web beacons. You can delete or block cookies through your web browser settings; however, because our session cookie is required to keep you signed in, blocking cookies will prevent you from using the logged-in features of the Services.

V. U.S. State Privacy Rights

Certain U.S. states, including California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Montana, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia (now or in the future) give their residents rights to how their information is collected and used. Although some of these options apply generally, certain options will only apply to limited individuals or circumstances. Depending on your state of residence, you may exercise the following rights and choices:

- Right to Know and Access. You may have the right to know whether Corama processes your Personal Data, or request access to the Personal Data we have collected about you.
- Right to Correction. You may request correction of Personal Data that we hold about you. This right allows you to request that Corama correct incomplete or inaccurate data Corama holds about you.
- Right to Deletion. You may have the right to request deletion of the Personal Data that we hold about you. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of deletion for specific legal reasons which we will tell you about, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- Right to Opt Out. You have the right to opt out of the processing of your Personal Data for the purposes of targeted advertising, sales, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects. Corama does not sell Personal Data, does not use it for targeted advertising, and does not engage in such profiling, so there is currently nothing to opt out of.
- Right to Non-Discrimination. We will not deny you Services, charge you different prices, or provide a different level of quality because you exercised any of these rights.
- Right to Portability. You have the right to ask Corama to provide you with your Personal Data in a machine-readable format.

- Right to Limit the Use of or Consent to the Processing of Sensitive Data. We will ask your consent before we process your sensitive Personal Data or allow you to limit our use of sensitive data as required by law.

The exact scope of these rights may vary. To exercise any of these rights please contact us at the information provided below. We will verify your request using the email address associated with your Account and respond within 45 days, or as otherwise required by applicable law. You may designate an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf; we may ask the agent for proof of authorization and may verify the request with you directly.

To appeal a decision regarding a consumer rights request, reply to our communication denying your request or email us at the address below with the subject line “Privacy Appeal.”

California Residents. The categories of Personal Data we have collected in the preceding 12 months, the sources, our business purposes, and the categories of recipients are described in Sections I through III above. We do not collect sensitive personal information as defined by the California Consumer Privacy Act beyond your Account log-in credentials, and we do not sell or share Personal Data. California Civil Code Section 1798.83 permits California residents to request information about disclosures of Personal Data to third parties for their direct marketing purposes; Corama does not make such disclosures.

VI. Exercising Your Privacy Options

To exercise any of the above options, you may contact us at: admin@corama.ai.

Please include your email address, full name, and specific information about your request(s). If you would like to update or correct your email address, work address, or other Personal Data with us, please include specific details about the information you wish to have updated or corrected.

Account Information and Deletion. You may review and update your name, company information, password, and Directory profile at any time from the Settings and Directory pages of the platform. To delete your Account and the documents you have uploaded, email us at admin@corama.ai from the email address associated with your Account.

Email Communications. The emails we send today are service-related messages (verification codes, password resets, Account notices, and notifications from other users) that are necessary to operate the Services. If we send promotional email in the future, each message will include an unsubscribe link. Service-related messages cannot be opted out of while you maintain an Account.

Do Not Track Signals. CalOPPA requires us to let you know how we respond to web browser Do Not Track (“DNT”) signals. Because there currently isn’t an industry or legal standard recognizing or honoring DNT signals, we don’t respond to them at this time. However, we do not track your activity across other websites, and we do not allow third parties to do so through our Services.

VII. Third Party Websites

This Privacy Notice applies only to our Services. Our Services may contain links to other websites, including government procurement portals such as SAM.gov. We have no control over the privacy practices or the content of any of our business partners, advertisers, sponsors, or other third parties we link to from our Services. Corama does not endorse, approve, or certify these other websites, and we do not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, efficacy, or timeliness of the information contained on those websites. You should check the applicable privacy notice of the website sponsor when linking to other websites.

VIII. Information Retention

We retain your Account information, uploaded documents, and generated Output for as long as your Account is active so that you can continue to use them in the Services. When you ask us to delete your Account, we delete or de-identify your Personal Data within a reasonable period, except where we need to retain it to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, enforce our agreements, or protect the security of the Services. Server logs containing technical information are retained for a limited period for security and troubleshooting. Please understand that residual copies of the Personal Data can remain in backups for a limited time in locations or formats that make immediate erasure difficult.

IX. Security

Corama takes reasonable steps to secure your Personal Data. All traffic to the Services is encrypted in transit using HTTPS, passwords are handled by our authentication provider and never stored in plain text, session cookies are protected against script access, and account sign-up requires email verification. However, no internet transmission is ever fully secure, and we cannot guarantee that information transmitted via our Website will remain confidential at all times.

Our Services are hosted in the United States. If you access the Services from outside the United States, your information will be transferred to and processed in the United States.

X. Age Restrictions

The Services are intended for businesses and business professionals and are not directed to children. By accepting the Privacy Notice through your use of our Services, you certify that you are at least 18 years of age. We do not knowingly collect Personal Data from children under 13 in accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). If we learn that a child under 13 has submitted Personal Data to us, we will delete it promptly. If you believe a child has provided us with Personal Data, please contact us at admin@corama.ai.

XI. Changes to Privacy Notice

We may update or change this Privacy Notice from time to time. We will post the changes on our Website and software, and will indicate the effective date. Your continued use of services after the changes are effective constitutes your acceptance of the Privacy Notice.
