

Corama, Inc. Privacy Notice

Effective Date: 11/01/24

Corama, Inc. (“Corama”) understands the importance of your privacy. This Privacy Notice applies when you visit any websites owned and operated by Corama, including our website at corama.ai (the “Website”), use our artificial intelligence software, interact with us on or offline, attend our events, or use any and all of our products and services (collectively, our “Services”). Our Privacy Notice describes our collection of information during your interactions with our Services, and the rights and choices you have regarding your information.

By using our Services, you acknowledge you have read our Privacy Notice, and agree to our Terms of Use.

I. Information Collection

When operating our Services, Corama collects information, including Personal Data about you. The types of information we collect depends on your level of engagement and how you interact with the Services. “Personal Data” means information that can reasonably be linked to a particular individual.

Sources of Information Collection. We collect information from a variety of sources, including directly from you and your interactions with our Services. We may also obtain information about you from other sources, including through third-party services.

The information we collect includes:

Identifiers and other Personal Information. We collect identifiers when you interact with our Services or otherwise voluntarily providing it to us. This includes:

- Full Name
- Email
- Company

Communications Information. We collect information within messages we exchange when you communicate with us. This includes:

- Information in support requests
- Questions and feedback
- Survey responses
- Other information you provide

Browsing and Usage Information. We use cookies and other embedded tracking technology like web beacons which automatically collect users’ browsing information when they use our Services. Additionally, other parties like our analytics and advertising partners place code with cookies or web beacons embedded in them. These are called third-party cookies. Some third-party cookies are used to track a particular user’s activity across the Internet. The information collected includes:

- IP address
- Browser type
- Browser settings
- Device ID
- Device information
- Operating system
- Cookie ID
- Browsing history

Financial Information. Third parties collect financial information on our behalf when you make payments to us for our Services. This includes:

- Debit or credit card information
- Billing address

Other Information You Submit. We collect any other information you submit to us through our Services through using our artificial intelligence software, by contacting us, or through other means.

II. Use of Information

Corama uses information and Personal Data for a variety of purposes, as described below. We use the information we obtain about you to:

- Manage Our Organization and Provide Our Services. Corama uses information and Personal Data to maintain user accounts, provide Services, facilitate usage of the Services, and complete necessary tasks to manage our business and provide our Services.
- Facilitate Purchases. Corama uses information and Personal Data to facilitate customer purchases.
- Conduct Research and Improve Our Services. Corama uses information and Personal Data to conduct research, such as questionnaires and surveys, and to analyze and enhance our marketing communication strategies and our Services as a whole.
- Communicate. Corama uses information and Personal Data to communicate important information, including delivering notices to you about the use of our Services.
- Protect Our Organization. Corama uses information and Personal Data to protect against fraud, unauthorized transactions, and other liabilities, and to secure our Services by identifying potential hackers and unauthorized users.
- Ensure Security and Efficiency and to Comply with the Law. We may use information and Personal Data for other purposes with your consent or where permitted by law, for example to comply with applicable legal requirements, court orders, legal proceedings, document requests, industry standards, and our internal policies.

III. Disclosure of Personal Data

We may disclose your information in the following circumstances to the below referenced parties. We disclose information and Personal Data:

- When You Consent. Corama will not disclose your information and Personal Data to others without your consent, except as specified in this Privacy Notice.
- To Our Service Providers and Vendors. We transfer all or a portion of your information and Personal Data to our service providers who help us deliver our products and services to you and for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice. These service providers are required by contract or law to only use or disclose the information as necessary to perform services on our behalf or as otherwise required by law.

- In the Event of a Merger, Acquisition, Change in Ownership, or Reorganization. Information and Personal Data we have collected may be disclosed to a third party in the event of a merger, transfer of ownership or assets, bankruptcy, or other corporate reorganization.
- For Data Analytics. We share your information and Personal Data with analytics service providers such as Google. Google may combine your browsing information, including information from your use of our Website, to generate interest-based advertisements. Google's data collection is governed by their own Privacy Notice, found at: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>. You can opt out of Google Analytics tracking here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
- When Legally Permitted or Required to Do So. Corama may disclose without your prior consent any information or Personal Data about you or your use of our Services, if we believe disclosure is necessary or required by law, or for our legitimate interests. Corama may disclose without your prior consent any information about you or your use of our Website, if we believe disclosure is necessary, including to:
 - o Protect and defend the rights, property, or safety of Corama, employees, other users of the Website, or the public;
 - o Enforce the Terms of Use and Privacy Notice;
 - o Respond to a legally valid request from a competent governmental authority;
 - o Respond to claims that any content violates the rights of third parties;
 - o Correspond with law enforcement agencies, if we are required to do so; and
 - o Satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or governmental request.

IV. Use of Cookies

We use cookies to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies through your web browser. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Corama Services.

V. U.S. State Privacy Rights

Certain U.S. states, including California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Montana, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia (now or in the future) give their residents rights to how their information is collected and used. Although some of these options apply generally, certain options will only apply to limited individuals or circumstances. Depending on your state of residence, you may exercise the following rights and choices:

- Right to Know and Access. You may have the right to know whether Corama processes your Personal Data, or request access to the Personal Data we have collected about you.
- Right to Correction. You may request correction of Personal Data that we hold about you. This right allows you to request that Corama correct incomplete or inaccurate data Corama holds about you.
- Right to Deletion. You may have the right to request deletion of the Personal Data that we hold about you. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of deletion for specific legal reasons which we will tell you about, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- Right to Opt Out. You have the right to opt out of the processing of your Personal Data for the purposes of targeted advertising, sales, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects.
- Right to Portability. You have the right to ask Corama to provide you with your Personal Data in a machine-readable format.
- Right to Limit the Use of or Consent to the Processing of Sensitive Data. We will ask your consent before we process your sensitive Personal Data or allow you to limit our use of sensitive data as required by law.

The exact scope of these rights may vary. To exercise any of these rights please contact us at the information provided below.

To appeal a decision regarding a consumer rights request, follow the instructions provided in our communication denying your request.

VI. Exercising Your Privacy Options

To exercise any of the above options, you may contact us at: adrian@corama.ai and +1 (312) 425-9500.

Please include your email address, full name, and specific information about your request(s). If you would like to update or correct your email address, work address, or other Personal Data with us, please include specific details about the information you wish to have updated or corrected.

Messaging and Newsletter Communications. You may control how you receive certain types of communications by unsubscribing within the body of the communication. Note that some messages are required, service-related messages such as transaction confirmation messages, legal notices, or updates.

Do Not Track Signals. CalOPPA requires us to let you know how we respond to web browser Do Not Track (“DNT”) signals. DNT is a privacy preference you can set in your web browser to indicate that you do not want certain information about your webpage visits collected across websites when you have not interacted with that service on the page. For details, including how to turn on DNT, see here. Because there currently isn’t an industry or legal standard recognizing or honoring DNT signals, we don’t respond to them at this time.

VII. Third Party Websites

This Privacy Notice applies only to our Services. Our Services may contain links to other websites including those that permit online transactions. We have no control over the privacy practices or the content of any of our business partners, advertisers, sponsors, or other third parties we link to from our Services. Corama does not endorse, approve, or certify these other websites, and we do not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, efficacy, or timeliness of the information contained on those websites. You should check the applicable privacy notice of the website sponsor when linking to other websites.

VIII. Information Retention

Corama uses several criteria to determine how long we should keep categories of Personal Data. We will retain your Personal Data for the time period reasonably necessary to achieve the business purposes outlined in this Privacy Notice to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Please understand that residual copies of the Personal Data can be stored in locations or formats that make complete erasure extremely difficult. The best way to ensure you control your information is to give us only the Personal Data that you are completely comfortable sharing with us.

IX. Security

Corama takes reasonable steps to secure your Personal Data. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to ensure that Personal Data is stored and processed responsibly. However, no internet transmission is ever fully secure, and we cannot guarantee that information transmitted via our Website will remain confidential at all times.

X. Age Restrictions

Corama takes children's privacy seriously. By accepting the Privacy Notice through your use of our Services, you certify that you are at least 18 years of age or at least 13 years of age and submitting Personal Data to us with the consent of a parent or guardian. If we find that a minor has submitted any information to us without parental consent, we will delete it immediately upon discovery.

XI. Changes to Privacy Notice

We may update or change this Privacy Notice from time to time. We will post the changes on our Website and software, and will indicate the effective date. Your continued use of services after the changes are effective constitutes your acceptance of the Privacy Notice.
